

Terminal Configurations of Stellar Evolution

David L. Beckedorff

April, 1962

I should like to thank Professor C. W. Misner for his very kind and patient assistance in the preparation of this thesis. The ideas which give direction to the discussion are primarily his. The errors which may have unobtrusively crept into the manuscript are my own.

D. L. B.